

Newcap, Inc. Appoints New Registered Nurse in Oconto, Wisconsin

Oconto, WI - Newcap, Inc. (<http://www.newcap.org>) announced November 8, 2016 that Amy Thomson had joined the non-profit organization to work in the Oconto Community Health Services Clinic and provide reproductive and healthcare services for males and females, including clinical exams, contraception education and prescriptions, emergency contraception, pregnancy testing and counseling, STD and HIV testing and counseling, and other reproductive healthcare services. Newcap Community Health Clinics provide low-cost and no-cost health coverage options, and all services are confidential, including services to adolescents. Prior to joining Newcap, Amy worked at a nursing home for 8 years.

Amy joins Newcap as a Registered Nurse at the Community Health Services Clinic in Oconto, WI and will continue Newcap's mission of over 50 years to move people from poverty to economic security and opportunities and improve communities. In her role she will work with clients to. Amy comments "I have always been passionate about women's health and love the clinic setting."

Deb Barlament, Executive Vice President of Operations at Newcap said "Women's health care is very important to Amy so she was the perfect fit for what we do here. She also has a strong passion for our mission to help others."

Amy attended NWTC and completed the LPN program in 2006. She then worked as a LPN until 2014 and then continued her education in the RN program. She graduated from NWTC in December of 2015 as a Registered Nurse. Amy is a wife and mother of 4 kids, Hannah 10, Madilyn 9, Ella 6 and Brady 3. She enjoys watching her children's extra curricular events, which keeps her very busy!

About Newcap, Inc.

In an ideal world, poverty would be non-existent. Unfortunately, in the real world poverty does exist. Newcap seeks to change that reality. That's why Newcap offers emergency care for people who find themselves in desperate situations, safety is in question or food is scarce. That's why Newcap assists those needing to stabilize their lives by securing a job, obtaining reliable transportation, or establishing a permanent residence. And that's why Newcap supports those who need help planning budgets, purchasing homes, and building job skills.

No matter where someone is on the poverty and independence scale, Newcap can help. Newcap has the resources, the personnel, and most importantly, the compassion to make a difference, and to fulfill its mission to move people from poverty to economic security and opportunities and improve communities.

People live in varying circumstances and therefore have different, and very unique needs. Newcap offers services to match. Newcap serves 10 counties in northern and northeastern Wisconsin with Crisis, Stability, Success, and Community Improvement services.

Contact

Newcap, Inc.
800-242-7334